Dear Congressman Manzullo,

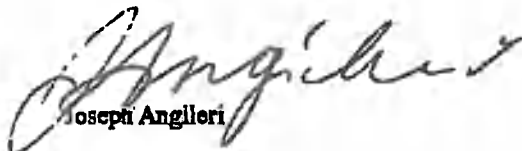

I am writing to you, to ask your assistance with a problem of obtaining relief of Federal Firearms Disabilities for myself. This goes back to 1974 conviction of which I received parole. I have always received my FOID card with no problem and enjoyed the sport of hunting. All of a sudden in the year of 1991, I was requested to return my FOID card. I submitted character references as requested and made a court appearance in Joliet, IL. granted relief. Attached is a copy of the letter.

We moved out of state to Washington to close to family, the state of WA. Did not require a FOID card and the IL card expired. In October 2003, we moved back to the Rockford area in IL. I sent in my application to acquire a new card so I could resume hunting with my son and grandsons. I was surprised when it came back rejected. I have made several calls and letters to different departments and been told I need a presidential pardon.

I would really appreciate your assistance in this matter. I am 68 years old and feel that I do not have a lot of quality time left where I will be physically able to go hunting with my sons and grandsons.

I give you permission to share this information with whoever needs it. I can be reached at [redacted] or cell phone [redacted]. My e-mail address is [redacted].

Respectfully,

Joseph Angileri

Dear Congressman Manzullo:

This responds to your letter to the President of July 16, 2004, forwarding correspondence from your constituent, Mr. Joseph Angileri, who writes to request a presidential pardon.

We are enclosing a pardon application. The form may be photocopied, and may also be found on our website, www.usdoj.gov/pardon.
